From: Rob Moffatt <[redacted]>
Sent: Sunday, 4 February 2018 8:29 PM
To: MOH Tobacco Control (MOH) <Tobacco_Control@moh.gov.sg>
Subject: MOH seeks public feedback on standardised tobacco packaging

California isn't alone in this "crisis", it's an "epidemic" of "pandemic" proportions among our academia, politic and media. "Helping" little old ladies to cross the street can be seen as a very noble deed; unless that is not where she wanted to go which would be seen as something entirely different. Ideological League of Nation whores pretending to be politicians, lawyers, journalists and doctors should remember the gallows of Nuremberg, least we forget….

A Crisis of Competence: The Corrupting Effect of Political Activism in the University of California

https://www.nas.org/images/documents/A_Crisis_of_Competence.pdf

Elitists, crybabies and junky degrees

http://www.washingtonpost.com/sf/national/2017/11/25/elitists-crybabies-and-junky-degrees/?utm_term=.59a3bb6fdce3

We Used Terrible Science to Justify Smoking Bans

http://www.slate.com/articles/health_and_science/medical_examiner/2017/02/secondhand_smoke_isn_t_as_bad_as_we_thought.html

A new lawsuit alleges that Stanton Glantz, a UC San Francisco scientist famous for taking on Big Tobacco, sexually harassed a former researcher and stole credit for her work.

https://www.buzzfeed.com/stephaniemlee/stanton-glantz-sexual-harassment-lawsuit?utm_term=.qrg52X3VA#.wfzzDRrZM

The Case Against Smoking Bans

https://poseidon01.ssrn.com/delivery.php?ID=693102115122092117001006124101009124025033010045057018088110127064104120106066113014024027057111007030003094067080005001119119055060083034099127121002029117097049061013016017066029080073071105126117004117000127125031064126102012025074021115029098&EXT=pdf