Your HSBC Life Shield Policy covers the Eligible Expenses incurred for Medically Necessary treatment of the Life Assured for the Benefits as stated in the Benefits Schedule.

The treatments must be provided by a Hospital or Community Hospital or similar establishments.

All Benefits are paid as a reimbursement of the Eligible Expenses incurred for medical treatment received by the Life Assured due to Illness or Injury and depend on the terms, conditions, and limits set out in the Benefits Schedule and General Provisions.

If the Life Assured receives inpatient treatment in a deluxe room, luxury suite, VIP room or any other special room that is higher than the Normal Ward in the same Hospital, We reserve the right to pro-rate the hospital bill to the rate of the Normal Ward in the same Hospital, before applying any existing Pro-Ration Factor in his/her Policy to adjust the bill to the ward type he/she is covered under his/her plan type.

The Life Assured is covered under HSBC Life Shield and admitted to a deluxe room. The pro-rated hospital bill before applying any Pro-Ration Factor will be calculated as such

$$\frac{A}{B} \times C$$

A: Daily Ward and Treatment Charges of a single-bedded Normal Ward at the same Hospital

B: Daily Ward and Treatment Charges of the deluxe room

C: Total hospital bill (excluding surgeon's fees and anaesthetic fees)
