

Summary of Vaccination Recommendations

S/N	Recommendations
1.	Persons aged 12 years and above are recommended to receive two doses of the PSAR mRNA vaccines (primary series), unless medically ineligible to do so.
2.	Persons with moderate to severe immunocompromise are recommended to receive a third dose of the PSAR mRNA vaccine two months after the second dose as part of an enhanced 3-dose primary series. This includes persons with the following conditions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Transplant patients on immunosuppressive therapy, including solid organ and allogenic stem cell transplants</li> <li>b. Cancer patients on active treatment with chemotherapy and immunosuppressive therapy</li> <li>c. Haematological cancers</li> <li>d. Immunosuppressive treatment for non-cancer conditions</li> <li>e. End-stage kidney disease</li> <li>f. Advanced or untreated HIV</li> </ul> Persons who have received a 3-dose enhanced primary series and are eligible for booster vaccination under Recommendation 3 are recommended to receive a booster dose of a PSAR mRNA vaccine, six months after the completion of their 3-dose enhanced primary series.
3.	The following persons are recommended to receive a booster dose of a PSAR mRNA vaccine, six months after completion of their primary series: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Persons aged 30 years and above</li> <li>b. Residents of aged care facilities*</li> <li>c. Healthcare and frontline workers*</li> <li>d. Persons and staff in institutionalised settings, such as residential care facilities and prisons*</li> </ul> *Aged 18 years and above

Summary of Latest Updates on Eligibility for Booster Vaccination

On the basis of a booster dose of a PSAR mRNA vaccine that is to be taken around six months after the completion of a primary series vaccination regimen.

	Aged 50 years old and above	Aged 30 years and above, till aged 50	Aged less than 30 years old
Nursing home residents (or similar)	Previously Recommended	-	-
Healthcare and frontline workers	Now Recommended for All (Age 18 Years and Above)
Persons and staff in institutionalised settings	Now Recommended for All (Age 18 Years and Above)
All other settings	Previously Recommended	Now Recommended	Not Yet Recommended